

Light It Up Blue (LIUB) is a global campaign that includes landmarks, buildings, local communities and people like yourself who come together on April 2nd for World Autism Awareness Day to light the world blue.

💡 Change your outdoor or indoor white light bulbs to Blue for the month!

💡 Distribute information about Autism, World Autism Awareness Day and Light it Up Blue in your workplace, school or community – Contact a;sa if you would like assistance or brochures.

How you can show your support...

💡 Participate virtually by taking photos and lighting them up blue with a festive frame – email them, share on social networks to become part of the global LIUB movement.

Table Mountain, Cape Town

💡 Autism South Africa will be selling arm bands with Blue LED lights at R20 each. Wear them on 2 April and everyday thereafter to raise Awareness of Autism.

💡 Join Autism South Africa to ride Critical Mass on 28 March - wearing blue! Look out for our blue ladies selling LED arm bands for the ride.

💡 Wrap a tree trunk in blue...

💡 Wear Blue on 2 April from head to toe!

💡 Host a Blue themed party or even Bake blue food! For example, Bubblegum Milkshake, Blue iced cupcakes or Blue coconut-ices.

💡 Create posters where you Paint or make a collage using the Light it Up Blue Light Bulb.

💡 Organise your own LIUB fundraiser and donate all proceeds to Autism South Africa.

The Nelson Mandela Bridge will be lit up blue on the 2nd April 2014 to support Autism.
